Caught Napping.

Uncle—Dear me, Carl, what a poor memory you have!

Nephew—A poor memory, you say? Why, I can repeat four pages of the names in the directory after reading them through only once!

Uncle—I'll bet you a hamper of champagne that you can't do it.

The nephew sends for a directory, and tentatively peruses four pages and shuts up the book.

Uncle—Well?

Nephew—Muller, Muller, Muller, etc., ad infinitum.

All the four pages of the directory being taken up with this familiar patronymic, our student won his bet in fine style.—Selfish.

He Died Happy.

Human nature is a queer thing. A man died in New Jersey not far from here who was worth $100,000 and had no near relatives. About an hour before he died he asked for a workman who occupied a little house on the place. The physician and nurse surmised that now the dying Dives was about to give that little home to the workman who had been faithful for so many years. "Lazarus," said the dying Dives (that was not the workman's name, however), "you only paid me $4 on the last rent, and in case I die I want to have things straight, you know, so I'd like you to pay the other $2." The money was paid, and a few minutes after, clutching it Dives breathed his last apparently happy.—Philadelphia Times.
